DO YOU KNOW THAT...

Chemical Abuse and Sexuality

A conference entitled "Chemical Abuse and Sexuality: Defining the Relationships" will be held September 8-10, 1980, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Sponsored by the Program in Human Sexuality, Medical School, and the Alcohol and Drug Counseling Education Program, School of Public Health, University of Minnesota, this conference will bring together experts in the fields of chemical abuse and sexology for discussions on such topics as pharmacological effects of drugs on sexual functioning, sexual abuse and chemical abuse/dependency, victimization issues, and sexual problems of chemical abusers. For further information and registration materials, contact Diane Campbell, Department of Conferences, 210 Nolte Center, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455.

Anaheim Program Information

In the March 1980 SIECUS Report article on the "Sex Education at Home" program sponsored by the Birth Control Institute in Anaheim, California, pertinent instructions concerning information requests were inadvertently omitted. Individuals and agencies wishing to receive program information and a sample packet may do so by sending $5.00 to: BCI Life Skills Management Program, 1242 West Lincoln Avenue, Anaheim, CA 92805.

Training for Parents and Teachers of Students with Sensory Disabilities

The Sex and Disability Unit of the Human Sexuality Program at the University of California at San Francisco has received a grant from HEW to augment the training of special education teachers and parents in new approaches to family life education for students who are either visually or hearing impaired. Two separate training activities will deal with sexuality and family life education, and social skills development. All workshop sessions will be interpreted in sign language. The program is being conducted in each of three years (1979-82): in the East during 1979-80, in the Midwest during 1980-81, and on the West Coast during 1981-82. For information, contact Carla Thornton, RN, MS, at UCSF, Sex and Disability Unit, 814 Mission Street, 2nd Floor, San Francisco, CA 94103.

Resources to Write for...

Good Sex after 50 is a compact, well-written booklet designed to encourage middle-aged and older people to maintain their sexual life. The advice in its 48 pages is realistic, forthright, and reassuring, and includes discussions of such topics as "How Health Problems Affect Sexual Activity," and "Where to Seek Advice about Sex." The authors are Ruth K. Witkin and Robert J. Nissen. Copies cost $3.00 each and are available from Regency Press, 32 Ridge Drive, Port Washington, NY 11050.
